

EMERGENCY RESPONSE, REPORTING & PREPAREDNESS

EMERGENCY RESPONSE, REPORTING & PREPAREDNESS

Air Emissions / Discharge, Toxic	To report accidental, illegal or excessive commercial toxic discharges into the air from stationary sources, or to report other air pollution problems.	South Coast Air Quality Management District	(800) 288-7664
Earthquakes and Floods	Non-emergency Police Hotline for Los Angeles	Los Angeles Police Department	(877) ASK-LAPD (275-5273)
Hazardous Material Spills/Illegal Dumping	For emergency response and mitigation of a hazardous material spill or accident or to report the illegal dumping of a hazardous material in progress.	County of LA Emergency Operations Center	911
	To report a hazardous material spill in California. (All facilities are required by law to report a release or threatened release of toxic materials, which is an immediate threat to public health or safety and environment within 24 hours).	State Office of Emergency Services, California State Warning Center	(800) 852-7550
	To report chemical, oil or other hazardous material spills in or near coastal waterways.	U.S. Coast Guard, Office of Health and Emergency Planning, National Response Center	(800) 424-8802
	To report the illegal disposal or abandonment of a hazardous material in a non-emergency situation.	LA County Fire Department, Health Hazardous Materials Control Program	(323) 890-4317
Historical / Cultural Artifacts Destroyed by Construction	To prevent the destruction of cultural artifacts by construction that is in progress.	City of LA, Dept. of Building and Safety, Preservation Clearance	(213) 977-6941
	To prevent the destruction of cultural artifacts by future construction.	City of LA, Cultural Heritage Commission	(213) 473-7720
Oil Spill	To report offshore oil spills (everything west of Pacific Coast Highway).	U.S. Coast Guard, Marine Environmental Response Division	(800) 424-8802
Poisons	Information on accident ingestion of poisons, chemicals or drugs and first aid procedures.	LA Regional Drug and Poison Information Center	(800) 876-4766
Preparedness	To request information regarding emergency/disaster preparedness.	Office of Emergency Management	(213) 974-1166
	Information on emergency/disaster preparedness including formation of Business Response Teams.	City of LA, Fire Department	(213) 485-5971
	Provides help in preparing for accidental releases of toxic chemicals, RCRA, EPCRA and Superfund information.	U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Emergency Planning and Community Information Hotline	(800) 424-9346